

WOMEN SHAPING SPACE IN THE MID-ATLANTIC

The 2017 AIA Women's Leadership Summit focuses on supporting women in leadership. One way this will be accomplished is through showcasing Mid-Atlantic projects designed by women architects as well as projects designed by Mid-Atlantic women architects. The 'Women Shaping Space in the Mid-Atlantic' slideshow exhibit will be featured during the summit, then following the summit on the website. Built projects may also be included within an interactive map featuring the architecture of women in the Mid-Atlantic Region.

Submit project works as follows:

- Each architectural firm may submit up to three (3) projects.
- Projects MUST be designed by at least one woman architect.

Projects MUST EITHER:

- Be located in the Mid-Atlantic (Maryland, DC, Virginia, Delaware, Pennsylvania, West Virginia); OR
- Be designed by architects located in the Mid-Atlantic, as defined above.
